Stand Up For Life Sun., 10/2 there were approximately 200 people in Huntington and 60 people in Manorville who braved the weather. It was cloudy but the rain held up until our events were over. Thank you to all those who attended. We gave out "thank you" gifts to participants as our SUFL is 25-Years Strong! Unfortunately, there's a feeling that many pro-lifers have become complacent and/or fearful since Roe v. Wade has been overturned. Let's prove them wrong!! We will remain VIGILANT and COMMITTED!

LONG ISLAND COALITION FOR LIFE EDUCATIONAL TRUST

2022 HIGH SCHOOL SCHOLARSHIP AWARD WINNER

Three Scholarships were awarded to high school seniors Emily and Elizabeth Campau and Nicholas Stamatakis. The purpose of the contest is to challenge young people to become actively engaged in raising social awareness and responsibility for human life.

Students demonstrated this through organizing and participating in pro life events such as 40 Days for Life etc. They indicated that it seemed difficult at first since they weren't sure how some peers would react, but after getting involved, knew it was right and wanted to do more! Thank you and congratulations!

HIGH SCHOOL 2023 SCHOLARSHIP AWARD

The LI Coalition for Life Educational Trust invites all high school seniors (including home schooled) in Nassau & Suffolk counties to take part in its 2023 High School Scholarship Award. Applicants are to participate in and engage their peers in respect for human life activities. Students will be evaluated on their level of involvement, creative advocacy and dedication in supporting respect for human life. For more info and an application, visit ProlifeED.org and scroll to Events in the drop-down menu. Also, stay tuned for more info in Life News.

Long Island Coalition for Life Being Honored

The Nassau County Chapter, Knights of Columbus, has selected the Long Island Coalition for Life to honor as its annual recipient of several fundraisers based upon the LICL's pro-life efforts in promoting educational, legal, legislative, social, and cultural reforms designed to ensure both the right to life and human dignity to dependent, helpless human beings. Several Chapter fundraisers will be held to raise funds for the Coalition.

On Sunday April 16, 2023 from 12 Noon to 5 PM the Chapter will hold its annual charity ball at Leonard's Palazzo of Great Neck and will publish a Chapter Ball Journal. Proceeds from advertising journal sales will help fund the Chapter's donation to the LICL and to a scholarship program.

Information on journal ads may be obtained from Journal Committee Chairman James Albert via E-MAIL: ddjra13@gmail.com; or phone (cell) 516- 272-6337. We are grateful and honored!

Protect Yourself :

Advice from the Patients Rights Council

If you are in an accident tomorrow, and can't make your own medical decisions for a week, a month, or even the rest of your life, who will make the decisions for you?

It is vitally important that you have named someone you know and trust, who agrees with your views and values and who can be assertive on your behalf to do so. Otherwise, medical staff may make decisions you and your family may not be in agreement with.

If you don't yet have the PRC's durable power of attorney for healthcare, called the Protective Medical Decisions Document (PMDD), please call the PRC to request it.

The Healthcare Proxy (in NYS) is another document protecting you and others from the medical staff making decisions you and others do not want.

You can reach the PRC on weekdays between 9 a.m. and 4 p.m. (eastern time) at 740.282.3810 or 800.958.5678.

FEDERAL LEGISLATION

The Biden Admin. is touting all it is doing to protect reproductive healthcare, including:

The VA will do abortions for health reasons, despite the 1992 Vets Healthcare Act, state laws, and Hyde Amendment. Medicaid to fund abortion travel, but just 8 weeks for baby care.

Pres. Biden told a DNC rally that two more Dem. Senators would mean an end to the filibuster, which would allow the passage of a Federal Abortion Rights law.

Some Pro-life Bills introduced in House or Senate recently:

HR.8776 No Federal Funds for Abortion Travel Expenses: "To prohibit use of federal funds for abortion through financial or logistical support to individuals traveling to another state or country to receive an abortion." Status - Introduced, in committee.

HR.8814/S.4840 Protecting Pain-Capable Unborn Children from Late-Term Abortions ('22): Status - Introduced, in committee.

HR.8926 Protect Pregnancy Care Centers Act of 2022: Status - Introduced, in committee.

S.4474 Prohibiting Federal Emergencies for Abortion Act: "To prohibit the declaration of a Federal emergency relating to abortion." Status - Introduced, in committee.

S.4519 Prohibiting Abortion on Federal Lands Act: Status - Introduced, in committee.

S.4539 Month of Life Celebration Act: To designate June as the "Month of Life" and adds the Month of Life to the "statutory list of patriotic and national observances." Status - Introduced, in committee.

Some Anti-life Bills in Congress

HR.8916 - Access to Reproductive Care for Service Members Act. S.4688 Reproductive Freedom for All Act - "To guarantee that Americans have the freedom to make certain reproductive decisions without undue government interference." Aims to restore pre-Dobbs abortion regime. Few bans, some conscience rights. Status - Introduced, in committee.

On Oct 4, the Supreme Court began its new term.

One early case to watch was heard on Oct 11 - National Pork Producers Council v Ross. It asks if one state (CA) can tell pig farmers in other states, "we will ban your pork if you don't keep sows in pens of at least 24 sq. ft." The ruling may well affect new state laws re women who travel from a state where abortion is illegal to another state for abortion where it is legal.

When SCOTUS recently refused to hear the case of Yeshiva U being ordered by an NY court to set up an LGBTQ club on campus, it looked like a setback for religious freedom. Turns out, the school's lawyers had not exhausted all their lower court options before turning to SCOTUS, which then gave guidelines to the school and club. Both parties agreed to work under them before possibly returning to NY courts. SCOTUS decisions re religious freedom may affect conscience rights of pro-lifers.

NEW YORK STATE LEGISLATION

S51002 / A41002 NYS Equality

Amendment: Revises the NYS Constitution which states that no person shall be subject to discrimination in their civil rights based on listed attributes/conditions (e.g., race, religion). The expanded list now includes, based on "pregnancy, pregnancy outcomes, and reproductive healthcare and autonomy." Status - Passed Assembly and Senate; will have to pass the Legislature again next year, and then be OK'd by the voters before it can take effect.

The Mayer/Bichotte-Hermelyn Stillbirth Tax Credit Bill ($2,000 to NY parent of a stillborn baby) didn't get a vote.

The NYS Legislature resumes in January 2023. The results of the elections on November 8, 2022 will determine the course of Life issues in the coming session.

John Paul II Medical Research Institute - Advocates against immoral medical research

Many pro-lifers are concerned about drugs, vaccines and other products that use or are derived from the use of stem cells from human embryos or aborted fetuses. But finding alternatives is often difficult (if not impossible). The John Paul II Medical Research Institute (JP2MRI) wants to change that! JP2MRI supports research that is pro-life driven.

JP2MRI focuses on the most ethical and cost-effective way of conducting medical research to help develop therapies and cures for a variety of diseases (e.g., neurodegenerative, cancer) which currently have few medical treatments or that they feel are not given adequate research and financial attention by the medical community at large.

The Institute is focusing on creating infrastructure and technology to help stimulate research on these diseases. Its approaches do not use cells derived from human embryos or aborted fetuses which are prevalent in research elsewhere. The Institute recruits patients to procure their tissue to develop stem cells and cancer cells for medical research.

To distinguish itself in the crowded biopharma industry, JP2MRI (a non-profit) positioned itself to create stem cells to screen drugs that other institutions or companies have created or the Institute will create. The purpose of drug screening is to identify the best lead drugs that may result in an FDA-approved product. Once approved, the Institute will license the drug to the pharmaceutical industry for payment.

According to JP2MRI, in March 2022, the United States Patent and Trademark Office issued a patent to a company, CET, for developing a novel approach in creating ethical and safer induced pluripotent stem cells (iPSC) which would eliminate the future need for embryonic stem cells. CET's collaborative research efforts with JP2MRI helped attain the patent. These stem cells have the potential for cell replacement therapy for organs damaged from chronic diseases. The ability now to grow large quantities of iPSC allows for the next critical step of human clinical research trials.

JP2MRI is doing the heavy lifting in the lab and scientific circles to develop biotechnologies to replace embryonic stem cells and aborted fetal cells and discover ethical treatments and cures. But other pro-lifers have an important role to play in this mission. We should become aware of where illicitly procured stem cells are used and register our complaint.

Products destined for human use are often tested on animals first. However, animal testing has been replaced in some cases by alternative non-animal testing methods, due in part by continuous pressure from animal rights activists. Pro-lifers should do no less, by calling on companies that use illicitly procured stem cells to stop that practice, but rather treat each human life, from conception, with respect.

Are pro-lifers 'anti-science' for being opposed to embryonic stem cell research?

When questioned why they are against embryonic stem cell research (ESCR), some pro-lifers respond that there have been no successes in treating human disease with stem cells from human embryos. That reply could be interpreted as being anti-science or at least not understanding the point of research, which is often to discover the unknown.

Explaining opposition to ESCR should be on first principles - human embryos are human beings who are killed in the process of their cells being extracted - and that is immoral.

In his article "Stem Cell Ethics and the Things We Refuse to Do," Fr. Tad Pacholczyk, Director of Education at The National Catholic Bioethics Center (ncbcenter.org), points out that perhaps one day embryonic stem cells will be shown to cure human ailments. However, that success, he says, "would not change the ethical objections to embryo destruction or convert an evil act into a morally acceptable one - though it might increase the temptation for some to cross the objective ethical line."

Fr Tad explains, "Refusing to destroy human embryos as a scientist does not imply any opposition to science itself, but only to unethical science, which... is invariably harmful to society. Good science is necessarily ethical science; it cannot ever be reduced merely to "efficient" science, that which might work or "solve my problems" while harming or destroying other human beings."

Emily’s Gift

“Every Moment I Love You Still”

Emily’s Gift is a perinatal bereavement program for miscarriage support. It is a program developed at Good Samaritan Hospital to give dignity to the physical bodies of miscarried children under 20-weeks gestational age. Christian burial services are offered twice a year at Queen of All Saints Cemetery in Central Islip. Secular culture sees these lost babies as less than a “life.” This program remembers each life lost with love and affection as all life is precious to God. Any products of conception that remain after a loss are taken to pathology and examined at the cellular level for human remains. The remains are then held in pathology until the next service. Those children without remains who were lost at home are spiritually remembered. At the service, each precious child’s name is read solemnly out loud with families present. The bodies are not incinerated and treated as medical waste but are buried at the cemetery with dignity and respect. Families approach the gravesite, lay down a single white rose, and say a prayer for their child.

For more information call the Perinatal Facilitator at Good Samaritan Hospital at 631-376-4089.
